

Collection of Design Tools

Last Updated Sunday, 29 August 2010

Do you ever struggle to make marketing collateral on your screen live up to the image in your mind? Do your marketing materials lack the WOW effect? Are you at wits end finding a designer that can create your vision? You've got a computer and have spent countless hour after hour trying to get professional results. Are you tired of the creative challenge of designing marketing brochures and flyers only to have little or no results?

Most business owner can be clueless where to turn for simple graphic design solutions. In an effort to educate clients Interlynk has added a Design Library to the website. The new section offers a collection of useful references to enhance graphic design and website design. Click Here to View
